

Cost estimator m/f

Job and assignments

He/she is in charge of quoting and launching the fabrication of the units, sub-units and structure parts required for building the ship.

He/she refers to the specifications to quote the various elements in view of the whole manufacturing process - from study to the making of tools and other equipments.

He/she is methodical, well-organised and diligent to supervise progress and alterations throughout the ship building process.

Work environment

You work in a design office at a shipbuilding yard, in a design office/naval architect, in the purchasing department, project department or for business management.

Inter-personal and expert skills

- You are competent with CAD and project management tools
- You have team spirit and have proven inter-personal skills
- You are meticulous
- Your English is fluent

Training

BAC +2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Metalworking design and manufacture ▶ Mechanical engineering and computer-integrated manufacturing
BAC +3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▶ Professional degree in industrial shipbuilding trades

Buyer

Business and sales manager

Project manager